

SHAMANIC TAKIS: SOUND COMMUNICATION

4 Weekly Evening Sessions: July 2018

OVERVIEW

Balance the harmony of sound with male and female energy, find your personal sound and learn a Kichwa Taki (medicine song). Understand more about Mother Nature and the rainforest and the communication and connection between us.

SCHEDULE AND LOCATION

These sessions will take place as 1 evening each week for 4 weeks, from 19:30 – 21:30. Please arrive no more than 5-10 minutes earlier to begin promptly at 19:30.

This 4-week course will be held in Greenwich, London. After booking and payment has been made, full details will be provided.

FEE

The fee for these evening sessions is £360.

THE KURIKINDI FOUNDATION

All net proceeds from Kurikindi's teachings are used to further shamanic work to maintain projects in Ecuador and to protect the Ecuadorian rainforest and its people.

For more information please go to: www.kurikindifoundation.org

SCHEDULE

These sessions will take place as 4 evenings over 4 weeks, from 19:30 – 21:30.

EVENING 1

Monday 2nd July

- How natural sounds are used in shamanism
- How to journey within shamanic sound
- Understanding how Mother Nature, the rainforest, birds and animals communicate through sound
- How to feel/sense sound
- How Takis are created

EVENING 2

Monday 9th July

- Discussion on how humans and animals use sound to communicate
- Interpretation of feelings of light and heavier energies within sound
- Practise and learn a Taki in Kichwa
- Identify sounds outside and practise to separate them
- Meditation within shamanic sound energy

EVENING 3

Monday 16th July

- Guayusa tea ceremony with meditation on animal connection
- Practise with the group Kurikindi's Kichwa Taki
- Discussion on how to create your individual Taki
- Find your individual sound

EVENING 4

Monday 23rd July

- Individual energy cleansing with shamanic sound
- Meditation to give gratitude to the four elements
- Question and answer session
- Amazonian Kichwa dance and song